A Hundred Pounds of Clay  (Bob Elgin, Luther Dixon and Kay Roger) 1961  Key G

Intro:  G  Em  Am  D7

G                              Em
He took a hundred pounds of clay
Am                            D7
And then He said "Hey, listen"
G                              Em
"I'm gonna fix this-a world today"
Am                            D7
"Because I know what's missin' "
C                              D7
Then He rolled his big sleeves up
C                            Em
And a brand-new world began
G                            D7
He created a woman and -
Am                            D7
Lots of lovin' for a man
Em                           C   D7
Whoa-oh-oh, yes he did
G                            Em
With just a hundred pounds of clay
Am                            D7
He made my life worth livin'
G                              Em
And I will thank Him every day
Am                            D7
For every kiss you're givin'
C                            D7
And I'll thank Him every night
C                             D7
For the arms that are holdin' me tight
G                              Em
And He did it all with
Am                            D7
Just a hundred pounds of clay
C                              G  D7
Yes he did, whoa-oh, yes He did

'round and 'round
Am                            D7
Pickin' the clay up off of the ground?
G                              G#dim
Doin' just what He should do
Am                            D7
To make a livin' dream like you
