Intro: Chords for last line verse

Am                      G
Alas my love you do me wrong,
F                       E7
To cast me off dis-courteously;
Am                      G
And I have loved you oh so long,
F         E7        Am     Dm  Am
Delighting in your com – pa - ny.

Chorus:

C                            G
Greensleeves was my delight,
Am                          E7
Greensleeves, my heart of gold
C                            G
Greensleeves was my heart of joy
Am              E7   Am    Dm   Am
And who but my lady Gre – en - sleeves.

Am                      G
I have been ready at your hand,
F                       E7
To grant whatever thou would'st crave;
Am                      G
I have waged both life and land,
F             E7         Am  Dm  Am
Your love and goodwill for to have.

(CHORUS)

Am                      G
Thy petticoat of slender white,
F                       E7
With gold embroidered gorgeously;
Am                      G
Thy petticoat of silk and white,
F          E7        Am  Dm  Am
And these I bought gla – ad - ly.
