Suzanne (Leonard Cohen)

C
Suzanne takes you down to her place near the river

Dm
You can hear the boats go by, you can spend the night beside her

C
And you know that she's half-crazy, but that's why you wanna be there

Em
And she feeds you tea and oranges that come all the way from China

Dm
And just when you mean to tell her that you have no love to give her

C
Then she gets you on her wavelength and she lets the river answer

C
That you've always been her lover

Em
And you want to travel with her, and you want to travel blind

F
And you know that she will trust you,

C
For you've touched her perfect body with your mind

C
And Jesus was a sailor, when he walked upon the water

Dm
And he spent a long time watching from his lonely wooden tower

C
And when he knew for certain only drowning men could see him he said

Em
'All men will be sailors then, until the sea shall free them'

C
But he himself was broken, long before the sky would open

Dm
Forsaken, almost human, he sank beneath your wisdom like a stone
